

Improving Outlook performance – Shared Calendars

Limiting the number of calendars in the “My Calendars” folder will improve Outlook performance; these calendars are synchronised regularly while Outlook is running. If a shared calendar is not heavily used by a user, it should be moved (you can drag and drop it in Outlook) to the “Shared Calendars” folder.

